

Work of Dr. Hoag in Hawaii Near End

Investigation Covers 10,000 Children, Industrial Schools and Insane Asylum and Means Much.

Dr. E. B. Hoag is now completing the work for which he came to the Islands in October on the invitation of the superintendent of public instruction, and a committee of public spirited citizens, interested in education and juvenile delinquency, says a report received from Honolulu, Wednesday.

Dr. Hoag's report includes, among other things, a complete study of the Honolulu juvenile court. In this connection a mental study was made of 150 cases and various changes were suggested for the improvement of court methods in order to bring them into line with the best of those on the mainland, particularly in Los Angeles. A similar study has been made of both industrial schools with important recommendations in respect to mental examinations, physical examinations and vocational instruction.

In connection with the Boys' Industrial school extensive recommendations were made in respect to the necessity for better housing conditions, increased hospital facilities, play direction and a number of educational features of a practical nature.

On the request of Governor McCarthy, Dr. Hoag has also made an investigation and rendered a report on the Oahu Insane Asylum, which has already been submitted to the legislature. This report includes, among other things, recommendations for adequate medical service, office assistance, trained helpers, modern equipment for the scientific treatment of violent cases, better housing facilities and the construction, as soon as possible, of entirely new buildings on a new location.

Wide Scope Covered

Dr. Hoag's studies have also included more than 15 private schools and many public schools on all of principal islands, altogether including a study by means of group intelligence tests and standardized educational tests of approximately 10,000 children. No such extensive investigation of individual and race differences in intelligence has ever been attempted before in Hawaii and the results in the opinion of Vaughan MacCaughy, superintendent of public instruction, will ultimately not only save the territory a very large amount of money but will also serve to greatly increase the practical efficiency of the schools, especially along the line of trade and vocational education.

Will Resume Former Work

Dr. Hoag, on his return to the mainland, again takes up his medical specialty and his work as medical director of the Los Angeles courts. During the summer he will, as usual lecture on mental hygiene and criminology in the University of California. Dr. Hoag's report will appear in the Educational Review published by the department of public instruction beginning with the March number. A final and complete report is expected to appear as a government publication from Washington.

MOLOKAI NOTES

Mr. Pickop and Mr. Max Carson of Honolulu were visitors on Molokai last week.

Walter Engle, county treasurer, has returned to Maui after an extended trip on Molokai. He thinks the "Lonely Isle" is all right.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke, returned to Honolulu on the eighteenth, after spending a few days here. They with the children, will spend the coming Easter holidays on Molokai.

The "Leleleona" came in heavily loaded with freight on the twenty-second.

The Mapulehu ice-plant is about completed. Also a large dairy stable where milk cows will receive daily washings and a steam bath once a week. The stable itself will be as sweet and clean as a good wife's kitchen.

E. K. Duvauchelle made a short trip to Lahaina on the nineteenth to dispose of $500 worth of meat.

Eugene Duvauchelle sold $50 worth of eggs and chickens from his Pukoo poultry yard last week.

Takanashi who last year made $300 from his watermelons at Pukoo, has put out a patch this year.

Messrs. Conant, Duvauchelle and Ushinari the new judges for the Star-Bulletin garden contest, are making their rounds. Many new gardens are coming in.

The Civic Improvement Association will hold its regular meeting at Kaunakiki on the 25th.

Mrs. Wm. Auld, mother of Mrs. Wm. Meyer died at her daughter's residence at Uakapue on the 19th. She was 84 years old.

Henry and Miss Kelli Duvauchelle were passengers from Honolulu for the Easter holidays.

Fifteen guests came in on the twenty-third to the Pukoo Hotel. They took in the Molokai sights and returned to Maui on the twenty-sixth.

Miss Ida Wood and a party of four teachers from Honolulu will spend Easter vacation at the Maunakulawai hotel.

Frogs legs fried in butter and served up hot at the hotel are much appreciated by guests. The frogs are raised in a near-by pond.

Dr. E. S. Goodhue left for Honolulu on the twenty-fifth. Dr. W. J. Goodhue will attend to his practice during his absence.

If the board of supervisors are doing as much for the whole of Maui as they are for Molokai (and it seems that they are) they will be returned with big majorities next election.

John W. Seabury who has been traveling for the past five years will arrive from Boston on the twenty-ninth and come at once to Molokai to spend four or five weeks with his old friend Dr. Goodhue. He is a first cousin of ex-president Taft and a nephew of the well-known naturalist Bradford Torrey.

James Munro returned from Honolulu on the twenty-third.

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish

Some concerns think it economy to send orders to Honolulu or to the mainland when they could be filled as well or better at home. They figure they save a few cents on the dollar by doing so and grasp at the nickel in sight.

BUT

Every dollar spent with Maui concerns passes from hand to hand, in wages, to the store, to the bank and out again into circulation, back to the concern that sent it out, again to be sent forth on its rounds. The profits accruing from the dollar kept in home circulation are many times larger than the small saving in the dollar sent away.
